Tuesdays: January 13th – February 17th
Instructor: Willow McLaughlin

6 week class : Cost $45
Time: 3:45 – 5:00 pm

Learn how to create crazy characters physically and vocally through theater games and the creation of a series of short plays based on famous children's books. The last class will include an informal performance for friends and family.

Songs and Scenes: A Musical Revue

Ages: 3rd – 6th grade
Mon. and Wed.: January 12<sup>h</sup> – February 18th
Performance on ACT's Second Stage: Feb. 18<sup>h</sup> 7:00 pm
Instructor: Andrea Vanderpool

6 week class: Cost $100
Time: 4:00 – 5:30 pm

Step into a musical and learn how to create a character in a scene, and then carry it through into a song, through dramatic games and exercises. Students will create a short Musical Revue of scenes and songs from 4 Broadway musicals which will perform on ACT's Second Stage!

Top Director: Developing Characters

Ages: 18 years - Adult
Classes: Sat. February 21st and Sat. March 7th
Performance on ACT's Second Stage: March 14th 8:00 pm
Instructor: Melissa Bridges

2 classes and 1 show: Cost $50
Time: 8:30 am – Noon

Will you be The Top Director and receive the shiny trophy? This hands- on class will teach the basics of directing and character development. Each student will have the opportunity to direct an actor through a short scene using principles from the class. The scenes will be performed on ACT's Second Stage and critiqued by 3 of ACT's well-loved directors.
